Sewing 28×15.5cm sewing on photos 2008

Artists are often attracted to a work not because of the created object but because of the pleasure they feel in the process of creating works. So is Yoon's work. The method of sewing the photo might look uninteresting, but it is harmonious with the quality of the painting and maintains the aesthetic elasticity. she enjoys the play not derived from the body, the point where the artist moves and feels, makes her work more direct and twinkling, and it is close to herself.
